

TS 8167 GT

NEW

85 R.M.

- ◆ Excellent yield for 85 day maturity
- ◆ Excellent test weight and grain quality
- ◆ Very good stalks, roots and late season health
- ◆ 28,000 - 34,000 PPA

TS 8181 GT

86 R.M.

- ◆ Top end yielder for maturity
- ◆ Adapts to north very well
- ◆ Total package with stress tolerance
- ◆ Fast drydown
- ◆ Medium size plant
- ◆ Semi-flex ear
- ◆ 28,000 - 34,000 PPA

TS 8235 GT

93 R.M.

- ◆ Medium plant size
- ◆ Excellent root and stalk strength
- ◆ Girthy ears with excellent yield
- ◆ Excellent stress tolerance
- ◆ Semi-flex ear
- ◆ 28,000 - 34,000 PPA

TS 8244 GT

NEW

95 R.M.

- ◆ High yield even under heat and drought stress
- ◆ Medium tall plant
- ◆ Flex ear type
- ◆ Very good grain quality
- ◆ 28,000 - 32,000 PPA

TS 8290 GT

97 R.M.

- ◆ Medium girthy ears with excellent yield
- ◆ Medium tall plant
- ◆ Strong stalk and roots
- ◆ A new hybrid for overall great performance
- ◆ 28,000 - 34,000 PPA

To help preserve the effectiveness of technology, the EPA (Environmental Protection Agency) has set guidelines for use of these technology products. It is our obligation to follow the Insect Resistance management plan in order to make sure this technology lasts a long time.

Most details on planting a refuge, and other requirements of the IRM plan, are provided in the YieldGard Guide or Monsanto's Technology Use Guide. Growers who fail to comply risk losing access to the product.